Molina-Medrano the Debtor, and Cornerstone agree that the following Consent Order be entered by the Court:

1. The hearing on Cornerstone's Motion is continued until February 21, 2013 at 11:00am. If however, Debtor fails to comply with the terms of this Court Order, Cornerstone or the Office of the US Trustee may file an affidavit of non compliance and request an expedited hearing prior to such date.
2. Counsel shall attend a status conference with the Court on February 6, 2013 at 11:00am to review the status of rent collections and the status of Debtor's mortgage refinancing pursuant to Debtor's approval letter presented at the January 3, 2013 hearing. A copy of said document is attached hereto as Exhibit A and shall be deemed an admitted full exhibit for purposes of this proceeding. The Debtor shall be responsible for having the mortgage broker referenced therein present in Court as an available witness on February 21, 2013.
3. Debtor shall provide the office of the U.S. Trustee and Cornerstone's counsel with conclusive evidence of liability and casualty/hazard insurance coverage required by Cornerstone's mortgages and acceptable to the local office of the U.S. Trustee by noon on Friday, January 4, 2004. The coverage shall name Cornerstone as a mortgagee and additional insured. The Court has scheduled a hearing at 11:00am on Monday, January, 7, 2013 to determine the existence of such insurance coverage. The hearing will be cancelled if acceptable evidence of coverage has been provided. The Debtor shall arrange for the office of the U.S. Trustee to be provided with contemporaneous evidence of timely payment of the required premiums.

4. Pending the continued hearing on February 21, 2013 and commencing on Friday, January 11, 2013 and each Friday thereafter, the Debtor shall make weekly "adequate protection" payments to Cornerstone of $1,200 per week. 5. Debtor shall immediately establish the required Debtor in Possession bank account. Any funds provided by the members or owners of the Debtor or by any member or friend of the Medrano family for the purpose of paying the adequate protection payments, insurance premiums and other related expenses to maintain the properties a) are gratuitous payments by them, b) do not constitute administrative expenses, and c) the providers of such funds shall not be entitled to any administrative priority in this case. Funds provided by the members of the LLC for the purpose of making the required weekly adequate protection payments to Cornerstone may be paid in whole or in part directly by the members of the Debtor to Cornerstone as provided above. All funds shall be appropriately described and accounted for in the Debtor's periodic operating reports to the US Trustee.
6. Cornerstone has previously exercised its right to collect rents and has previously notified tenants to pay rents to it. Cornerstone will cooperate with the Debtor and will jointly execute a letter providing notice to tenants that they may forward all future rents to the Debtor. Counsel for the Debtor shall be responsible for preparing and mailing said correspondence to the tenants.
7. Due to the adequate protection payments ordered herein, no cash collateral order is being entered at this time.
8. The present payoff figures for each mortgage of Cornerstone as of 1/3/2013 with applicable per diems are attached hereto as Exhibit B.
